[now comes the “normal” follow on verbiage]

At a Registers Court held at Lebanon in and for the County of Lebanon the first day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand Eight Hundred and Twenty One, Samuel Rex, Esquire, being duly sworn according to Law doth depose and say in Open Court that He was called to write the will of John Seiger of Heidelberg Township in the County of Lebanon on the fifteenth day of July last I went on the 16th and found him in bed, he was sick and low but of sound mind. He then requested me to write his will. I spoke to him and found his conversation such as induce me to believe that he was capable of making a will. He mentioned to me that he wanted to make his will and intend to go into my town to do it. I think that from what he said that he had been thinking of making his will before – I received the Instructions from the mouth of the Testator and reduced them to contis (??) and expain (??) the same to him by reading this over to him as I went along in the presence of John Stover and the foregoing minutes are the same which I took from his mouth. I went home to ___ the will but before I finished writing it I received the news that the Testator was dead.
