that we have a claim against our spouse for his/her refusal to pay the debts assumed herein.

Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, the parties further agree that each party shall pay his or her own bills incurred from and after the commencement of this divorce proceeding. Each of the parties agrees not to contract any debt, charge or liability whatsoever for which the other or his or her property or estate shall or may become liable or answerable in the future.

Except as otherwise expressly provided, it is further agreed that any and all unpaid debts not otherwise addressed in this document, incurred by the parties during the course of their marriage shall be the responsibility of the person who incurred it. Each party shall indemnify and hold harmless the other therefrom.

(3) Military Benefits (If one of the parties is a military member):

Husband/Wife (choose one) may be entitled, as a spouse of a servicemember, to insurance coverage due to his/her spouse's service in the military past or present. The military member shall take the necessary action to ensure his/her spouse all benefits to which he/she is entitled as the former spouse of a military member. Husband/Wife shall retain all rights of a former spouse including a military identification card and commissary privileges. This includes National Guard Service. You should seek legal advice to understand and protect your benefits and you are strongly encouraged to do so.

If the Plaintiff or Defendant is a member of the military service, past or present, please list rank, branch of service, and number of years in service during the marriage.
